

Sketchmob

National Portrait Gallery,
St Martin's Place, London WC2
Thursday 25 Feb 6.30 - 8.45

Learn to draw the human head from the masters. Choose from 160,000 portraits from the 16th Century to present day. Look Shakespeare in the eye or draw the meandering galleries and visitors. Study the opulence of Elizabethan dresses or David Bowie's make-up.

Meet up outside the main entrance at 6.30 for a few tips. Drawing until 8.45 then a review of the work before a welcome drink. Bring sketchbooks, coloured pencils and a keen eye. www.npg.org.uk

This is a drawing event that happens every month throughout the year in London. All welcome. All free.
