At the Royal Festival Hall

Belvedere Road, City of London SE1 8XX
Tuesday 15 March 2011, 18.30 - 20.45

The R.F.H. is a celebrated 50s building that houses music and theatre, several bars and restaurants, stunning river views, and spontaneous social gatherings.

Built to commemorate the Festival of Britain it is a dream place for people-watching. We will go through some exercises to put character into your figures and architecture into your compositions!

Meet inside the main entrance overlooking the Thames. All welcome.
